The President's Pen

Welcome to University of the Third Age (U3A), Kingborough

The U3A Kingborough AGM was held on March 29th with approximately 35 members in attendance. Thank you to Don Gregg for presiding over the election process. The re-elected committee welcomes Trish Buchanan, Jean Newton and Val Taberlay to the committee. As Venie Phillips steps down, she was thanked for her years of service as a tutor and dedicated committee member. She will remain active with the many "behind the scene" members who contribute time and expertise.

As you may have heard, I am in Canada visiting family for a few months but I am just a few clicks away through the wonderful world of the internet. On a day to day basis, John Culliton and Marcus Higgs, vice presidents are "holding the fort" with the other members of our excellent Committee.

Thanks to Marcus for the BBQ details below:

"...The BBQ turned out very well and there was a real buzz of conversation and excitement for 2 hours. Fifty or so people in total attended and Stavros Mitsakis and John Page did a great job cooking the sausages and onions. Thanks to the members who donated the varied salads making for excellent dining. All round it was a great success with many favourable comments. Well done committee!"

This newsletter again contains details of new and standing courses for term 2. Topics from family history; chemicals to calendar; culture with people and places; home computer to Woodbridge Trio of Local Presenters are on offer thanks to the program committee. View the "At a Glance" and enjoy the courses through the winter days in Tasmania.

Last year the Mid Year Lunch was fully attended. See enclosed details for July 27th.

Jane Mays
President.

U3A TRAVEL GROUP???

Are there places you'd love to visit, but you never seem to quite get around to doing anything about it? Or are you alone, but one who would prefer to travel with people you know? People who are stimulating company, intelligent, full of fun? U3A members, for instance.

Any ideas? Julie Gardam, who has lived in China, is prepared to take a small U3A group there. Samarkand is my dream place, easier to visit in a group than individually.

Ring or, preferably, email me if you're interested or if you think this is a good idea. Alternatively, put your suggestions in the box I'll try to remember to place in the kitchen.

Mae'r Gymraeg yn Hawdd – Welsh is Easy! - Beginners

KA1

Peter Ball

Welsh is the most thriving of the Celtic languages and these sessions introduce the spoken language of today with light relief from music, video etc about Welsh culture. For rapid progress, sense of achievement, and motivation, homework between sessions is a free internet course, "Say Something in Welsh" (SSIW—see www.saysomethinginwelsh.com /), and class time is for explanation, practice, and extension. CDs or cassettes of SSIW are available if necessary. Free resources from BBC Wales, and elsewhere will sometimes be used. Term 2 continues from where we reached in Term 1 but new members are welcome: anyone with minimal grounding in Welsh will easily cope. If no experience, try out SSIW or contact Peter 6239 1265 for more details.

Peter from Bristol studied in Hull and Belfast before lecturing in Uganda, and then specialised in social psychology, psycholinguistics and related fields at UTas. He enjoys choral singing, art and languages.

Monday 2:30-4:30

Mwy o Gymraeg – Welsh Continuation

KA1

Margaret and Guy Nicholson

This course is aimed at those who have completed a beginners' course and want to improve their command of spoken Welsh. A range of handouts from North and South Wales will be provided and some time will be devoted to the text Teach Yourself Welsh. There will also be an opportunity to listen to and sing Welsh songs.

Margaret comes from Anglesey in North Wales and Welsh was her first language when she immigrated to Tasmania in her mid teens. She has kept her Welsh alive. Her strength is colloquial Welsh and she is keen to help with pronunciation and developing confidence in speaking.

Guy has been learning Welsh from Marg and her family for many years but has studied the language more intensively over the last two or three. His background has been in History teaching but like Marg enjoys using a range of resources to self learn, and believes in the importance of speaking to assist active learning of language.

Tuesday 10:00

Tasmania History over 5 Generations

KA3

John Biggs

We see Tasmanian politics unroll respectively through the jaundiced eyes of a hell-fire and brimstone temperance preacher, an inventor frustrated by bureaucracy, a true-blue upright patriot, a disappointed musician and school-teacher, and a carping academic returning after a long absence to present day Tasmania. For a moment there he thought he was returning to his great-great-grandfather's Van Diemens Land. This socio-economic history of Tasmania is soon to be published.

John, is a fifth generation Tasmanian who has had an academic career in England, Australia, Canada and Hong Kong. He has published several books his most recent being about the Chinese tin-miners in Tasmania.

Tuesday 11:30

Midsummer Madness; A Step into the Realm of Fantasy

KA1

Helen Potgeiter

This term we will look at Shakespeare's "A Midsummer Night's Dream". This will be a light-hearted approach to this delightful play of mishaps and misadventures. Dreams, fantasy, and magic have always been a favourite ingredient in the world of the arts. Class members will have the opportunity to explore how this play has been the inspiration to many artists, composers, ballet and film producers.

Helen enjoys sharing her love of poetry and drama but most of all she enjoys the lively debates and discussions between the members as they have the pleasure of rediscovering the genius of Shakespeare.

Tuesday 11:30

KA3

John Coll

We will not deal with food products in this series, but will focus on other areas of the household from the garage, garden, laundry, bathroom, boudoir and the materials used to furnish the home.

John is a retired Research Scientist and Teacher and is now President of Clarence U3A. Following his excellent course "From Carbon to DNA" in 2010, we look forward to his insights into this fascinating subject relevant to us all.

Calendars, Clocks, and Navigating the World

KA3

Gifford Causon

From the very earliest times people have observed the seasons and the changes to daylight. This led to attempts to make calendars and to measure time. Clocks then enabled man to navigate the world but how did we get daylight saving and has this any relevance to Tasmania? We shall find that it has from Lenah Valley to Mount Wellington.

Gifford is well known to U3A and has given a wide range of interesting courses from travel to music to the history of writing.

Thursday 10:00KA1*Early 20th Century Australian Writers*Noela Foxcroft

Last Term we began to look at the lives of some of the well known Australian authors of the times beginning with Katharine Susannah Prichard and Miles Franklin. Noela sought the class views on who else should be included and other authors ranked were Ruth Park, Eleanor Dark, May Gibbs, Daphne Cusack, Ian Idres, Banjo Patterson, Darcy Nyland and Henry Lawson - where to stop!? Well, of course we ran out of time, so in this Term we will look at the lives and works of additional important Australia writers. New class members are most welcome.

Noela has tutored in U3A for many years in a variety of subjects. She previously has great experience teaching Maths in schools in ways which encouraged and inspired all her students. Her enthusiasm, knowledge and experience will rub off on all of us doing this course.

Thursday 10:00KA3*A Musical Morning*John Culliton

Join us and a few of our friends – like Wolfgang, Franz, Edvard, Edward, Ludwig van, Pyotr, Robert, Henryk, Maurice, Frederick, Claude, Georg (at least two Georgs and several Georges), Percy, Antonio, not to mention Louis, Duke, Dave, and Fats, and of course good old Trad. And many many more. Say what you think of their efforts (between tracks of course) or just sit and listen. With your eyes shut if that's how you like to take your music – lots of us do.

Good sounds on Thursday mornings.

John has a wide knowledge and experience with music both on a professional and personal level. He has worked the television industry in Sydney for many years.

Thursday 11:30KA1*French Language and Culture*Edith Adler
